

NC State's Annual Vermiculture Conference

10/26/2017 - 10/27/2017

The James B. Hunt Jr. Library, NC State University, Raleigh, North Carolina

NC State's 18th Annual Vermiculture Conference is the only annual training in the world on commercial vermiculture, and provides the tools to start or expand an earthworm or vermicompost production operation. Learn how to start or expand an earthworm or vermicompost production facility.
