Integrated Pest Management (IPM) Symposium

9/28/2017 - 9/28/2017

North Carolina Arboretum's Education Center, Asheville, North Carolina

The 7th annual Integrated Pest Management Symposium produced and hosted by the Arboretum in conjunction with The North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service. This event is for industry professionals only who work with beneficial insects to manage pests on greenhouse, nursery and farm crops. Multiple states grant pesticide credits and CEUs for attendees to this event.
