United Fresh

6/25/2018 - 6/27/2018

McCormick Place, Chicago, Illinois

When fresh, healthy and better-for-you products align with the technologies and advancements in a streamlined global supply chain, your company wins. This June in Chicago, United FreshMKT Expo, International Floriculture Expo, United FreshTEC Expo, Global Cold Chain Expo and the new SmartFood Expo will come together on one trade show floor, allowing your business the opportunity to explore the newest fresh produce, floral, better-for-you products and the tech innovations that support growth, development, promotion, transportation and expansion across the supply chain.
